COUNTRY FAIR OPENS SATURDAY

Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

The Country Fair which the Parent Teachers association is instituting as a benefit to aid in building a Boy Scout Lodge in the municipal park, will take place tomorrow afternoon and evening in Armory Hall. This event should be an annual affair. Despite the fact that this is pre-eminently a mining community there are many fertile spots in the county which produce delicious apples, pears grapes, figs, berries of all sorts and even oranges. At present no place is open for their exhibit except the State Fair. A real country fair given earlier in the season would open the eyes of many Nevada county residents, regarding agricultural possibilities in this community.

If the truth were told it would be clear that this county leans too heavily upon the mining industry. We are all proud, of course, of the achievements of this industry, of the world wide renown Nevada county has maintained for 85 years of mining, of the fact that men trained in this county have gone forth to every mining district on earth and won distinction as engineers. But what we have failed to do is emphasize the fact that Nevada county is one of the finest places in the world to live, that it is a sports and recreation area second to none in California, that, for those who have the training and ability, there are places in the county where farming can be made to pay, with a home market for practically all farm commodities. An annual country fair would call attention to these advantages.

We notice that Italy, which along with Germany which has never given women political enfranchisement, has exalted their capacity to provide future soldiers and workers, assigned all drudgeries, and putting it briefly, "kept them in their place," is now very glad to turn over to them the administration of all the restrictions which the war imposes upon necessities, such as food, coal and clothing. The women are not smart enough to vote, but to them has been assigned the most difficult task of the war.

At the present writing it would look as if the district attorney of Sacramento county had been hasty in his deductions concerning the conduct of the state treasurer's office. The missing Shearer, who confesses to a defalcation of $24,000, has been found. He assumes all the responsibility for shortage in state funds. He exonerates Secretary of the Treasury Johnson. Instead of withdrawing some of his apparently unwarranted attacks on the state treasurer, District Attorney Babcock, now seems to think he must make good his past performances and substantiate his degrogatory inferences. In a small way he is in the position of Mussolini, who having tackled Ethiopia, now finds he cannot back out without losing his job as Il Duce.

State Senator Jerry Seawell, in a letter to the Nugget published in another column, apparently thinks the present campaign to defeat a tax on gold is needless. He may be right. But the campaign should go on with unabated energy so long as there is even a small group in California who seriously support such a measure. Among this small group is the Governor, who, hitting at the big oil companies to which he is uncompromisingly hostile, would enmesh the gold mining industry in the same net, so as not to display favoritism. We think the Governor is well over his popularity peak and is not much to be feared. But the campaign of protest on the part of mining interests is educative. Once the people are satisfied of the impracticality of this severance tax proposal, there will be no revival of the iniquitous propaganda. We may be setting up a straw man to knock down, or we may be laying ghosts, but the effort is worth while, for it does make the people of California understand better the problems of the gold producer.

RECOVERS

Robert White, son of Mr. and Mrs. George White of Prospect Hill this city, was a happy young man Thuhsday when Dr. C. P. Jones of Grass Valley told him he would be able to do without his crutches. He was severely injured in an accident at the Zeibright mine in January two years ago. He will limp for some time yet, though making good recovery from the injuries.

BARN DANCE TONIGHT FOR HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

Something new and different in the line of high school socials will be presented tonight when the two shorthand classes of the Nevada City high present their annual function in the form of a barn dance. The dance will be held in the assembly hall of the high school, and a lively time will be held from 8:30 until 11. Duke's Collegians, dressed appropriately, will furnish the music.

Decorations will be novel with light from numerous old fashioned lanterns forming the illumination for the affair. A barn like, rural atmosphere will prevail, and dancers are expected to appear "dressed for the occasion." Gingham and jeans will prevail with the appearance of a battered straw hat or a pocketed corn cob pipe not altogether unexpected.

One of the high lights of the evening will be the selling of cider, doughnuts, and candy in one corner of the hall while in another, the fortunes of the students, prepared in shorthand, will be read to those interested in their own futures. During the intermission period, a floor show will be held consisting mainly in the dancing of a schottische by several of the high school girls.

The dance is open to Nevada City high school students and alumni and their parents. A general charge of ten cents will prevail, student body card not being used for class functions. Those on the committee responsible for the affair are Betty Tefft, Pauline Rozynsky, Katherine Glennon, Lucille Carter, and Olive Bobb. Miss N. Baggley, head of the commercial department, is general advisor for the dance.

JUDGE TUTTLE GUEST SPEAKER AT CONVOCATION

Emmanuel Episcopal church of Grass Valley was the host church for the Northern California Diocesian Convocation held in Grass Valley Wednesday. The convocation convened at 10:30 o'clock in the church. Communion service with the Bishop of Spokane, Rt. Rev. Edward M. Cross delivering the sermon.

After the morning service luncheon was served by St. Catherine's Guild in the parish house next to the church. There were about 100 laymen and clergy at the luncheon Judge Raglan Tuttle, chancellor of the Diocese was speaker at the luncheon hour.

Judge Tuttle chose "The Law and Youth" as his topic and greatly interested his hearers with his description of the present day method of correction, not punishment, of delinquent youth. He explained the beneficial result of the "cottage system" of housing, the vocational work and educational work done at the corrective schools in California, the one at Whittier for boys under 16 years of age and the one at Ione for boys over 16 years of age.

Judge Tuttle also explained the juvenile court system in this state. In this county juvenile hearings before the court are private, and records are sealed. This to prevent undue publicity of boy or girl delinquency which is a great handicap to them in their rehabilitation.

After the luncheon hour section meetings were held. During the afternoon session a shield of honor was presented to Miss Elma Hecker of Trinity Sunday School of Nevada City for the highest award throughout the diocese during the past year for scholarship and increase of attendance.

After the meetings Mrs. Arthur Foote of Grass Valley was hostess at tea, to those who were at the meetings. Attending the convocation from Nevada City were:

AGED LING HING LOSES HISTORIC STORE IN FIRE

Ling Hing, 88 years old, and former early day miner of Washington and store keeper, lost practically the entire contents of his store at the corner of Commercial and York streets by fire Wednesday evening. Many years ago Hing bought the building which is 70 years old, from Hee Kee. Hing's son, Walter Hing of San Francisco, came up last evening and is straightening out his father's affairs. Hing's wife died about a month ago. Several years ago his late son, Ling Hing, with a fine six horse team, hauled supplies to the Spanish and other mines in the Washington district.

The fire alarm sounded about 10:30. Mr. E. J. N. Ott stated that when he heard the fire crackers and bombs going off it reminded him of the big Alpha store fire of a few years ago when ammunition kept up a regular bombardment.

SWEETLAND RESIDENT CALLED BY DEATH

Edwin Theodore Royer, 80 years, native of Washingtonville, Ohio, who had resided in Sweetland for 10 years, passed away at three o'clock Tuesday morning. He leaves a brother C. J. Royer of Ohio. Holmes Funeral Home will arrange for services and cremation at East Lawn cemetery in Sacramento this morning.

On August 22, 1932 Mr. Royer left a sum of money in a joint account in the Nevada City bank for Mr. A. M. Holmes to spend in arranging all details of the funeral and shipping of his ashes to his brother in Ohio. Mr. Holmes is carrying out the will of Mr. Royer.

MAXWELL GUILTY OF OBSTRUCTING SIDEWALK

The jury trial of W. E. Maxwell, charged with obstructing a thorough fare, this violating city ordinance 68, was tried yesterday morning before Police Judge Miles Coughlin with Mrs. Nettie Gildersleeve as foreman of the jury. About thirty-five spectators were present.

Maxwell had no legal counsel and because of this city attorney W. E. Whight submitted the case without argument merely presenting the photographs of evidence and witnesses. For about 30 minutes Maxwell questioned witnesses and presented his case. The jury was out eight minutes and brought back a verdict of guilty.

Judge Coughlin stated that he would pronounce sentence tomorrow.

YELLOWJACKETS AND MINERS TO CLASH TODAY

(By BEN SWEENEY)

Playing a game that is more vital to the heart of every player than perhaps any other game the Nevada City Yellow Jackets will meet the Grass Valley Miners tomorrow afternoon on the local high school gridiron. At 2:15 the kick-off will take place, and two fighting elevenh will enter into the spirit of the traditional sister city contest. Nevada City, Foothill League B champs, will enter the contest smarting under but one defeat this season, and that one from the Grass Valley A squad in the first game of the series held a few weeks back. Teams of as near equal weight as possible will meet this Saturday thus presenting a different situation than the one under which the two cities met before.

Moulton and Widauf, regulars on the Yellowjacket squad, are still out and necessitate the playing of two second string men throughout the game. Such a disadvantage, however, will not put a kink in the fight that will be shown by the purple and gold team. Doolittle has also been out, but is expected back for the Grass Valley mix up.

The boys have been hitting the line hard in practices, and are not too over-confident for their own good. If Grass Valley plays men of equal weight, a good game is promised. The public should not miss the opportunity of witnessing this, the most important game of the 1935 season.

Varied Program For Scout Lodge Benefit Event Is Announced

With an eager group of young people entered in the amateur theatrical hour, a long list of industrial and agricultural exhibitors, and a program of music and dancing that promises exceptional entertainment, the Country Fair sponsored by the Parent Teachers association will open tomorrow afternoon and evening in Armory Hall.

Mrs. Leland Smith, president of the Parent Teachers association extends the thanks of her organization to all those who have helped to make this Fair an outstanding community event, and states that wherever she turned she found ready and willing assistance in the many details that are necessary to an affair of this magnitude.

The program, announced yesterday by Christian Anderson, director of the Fair, will open at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon with an address by Judge George L Jones. Mrs. Katherine Celio will sing, and a violin solo by Oscar Odegaard Jr. will follow. Wallace Moore will render a trumpet solo, and then will appear the "German Band" a group of Boy Scouts headed by Dick Marriott. Pearce brothers will put on a "cow boy" specialty. Mrs. Doris Anderson will sing to the accompaniment of a mandolin, after which John Bowman will do a one-man-band act. There will b group singing by grammar school groups and a song by six year old Erik Anderson.

The evening program will open at 7:30 p. m. with a short one act play entitled "The Orange Colored Necktie," with a cast chosen from the Washington School Dramatic club of which Miss Lois Shaw is director. Following this will come the amateur hour. The program follows:

Exhibitors in the show room into which the Red Men's Lodge room has been converted consist of: Pacific Gas & Electric Company, Nevada County Lumber Company; Nevada City Drug Store, North San Juan Ridge Improvement League, Loma Rica Ranch, Ullrich Bros., Bierwagon Bros., Leutenecker Ranch, W. Wasley Ranch, Nevada City School Board. Besides these exhibits there will be a large and varied display of fancy work, quilts, etc.

Following the amateur hour Saturday evening, at 9 o'clock the barn dance will begin. Tom Coan will call the figures for the square dances during the evening. There will be modern dance rhythms after the barn dance for the young folks who have never experienced the fun of the old fashioned quadrills.

The Nevada City high school band will give a concert in Broad street this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SEAWELL SAYS SEVERANCE TAX IS IMPROBABLE

Editor,
Nevada City Nugget.
Dear Editor:

From articles that have been appearing in newspapers throughout my district and California in general, as well as the enormous amount of mail that I have been receiving during the past few weeks, protesting against a severance tax on gold indicates to me that the mining industry of California is fearful that such a tax is to be levied by the California legislature, should it meet in special session.

In order that I may give my personal views on this subject, I would appreciate your kindness in allowing me the use of the columns of your valuable paper.

I have been through many battels, since I have represented this district in the legislature, on behalf of California's gold mining industry. With experience that I have gained from this issue, I believe I am qualified to express generally the attitude of our legislators.

During the 1935 session we defeated a proposed severance tax on gold and timber before the joint taxation committee of both houses. Such a tax did not reach the floor of either house for consideration. All arguments were advanced at that time in behalf of this form of taxation, as well as arguments against it. I can not conceive, or understand why these would be a change, if there is, in the minds of our legislators regarding this subject.

I conscientiously believe that no such tax could be enacted in California at this time. There is no sound reason that can be advanced for such a tax, and any program that does not possess merit is bound to fail due to its own shortcomings.

I sincerely hope the mining industry of this state will not become panicky and case development due to a threat of a severance tax being enacted, as I can express with extreme confidence that no such law will, or can, be enacted into our statutes, basing my contention that the people of California will not stand for such an unfair and unjust form of taxation.

I am taking this opportunity of expressing to the people of my district that I will do all within my power to guarantee to them as their representative, that a severance tax law on gold and timber will not be written upon our statute books.

Thanking you for this favor, I remain

Sincerely yours,
JERROLD L. SEAWELL.

The Fair's The Thing

I met King Solomon one autumn day,
Splendiferous in glittering array;
And with him, seven hundred wives
Seeking things new to their restricted lives.
"Hast aught in this thy town," said he to me,
"Of rare and curious that we may see?"
I answered, "yea, oh king, the swimming pool,
The Indian rock, our antique grammar school—"
"We saw them all," said he, "at dawn of day,"
And turned to lead his flock of dears away.
"Stay," then I cried, "I do bethink me king,
The fair—our country fair's the thing!"
"The fair?" he groaned, "the fair's have wrecked my life!"

"Great King," I cried, "please heed the words I say,
I would make known to you the P. T. A.
Its members I would introduce to you
And then reveal the gracious deeds they do.
I told him of the useful lives they led,
Of little lonely children clothed and fed,
Of civic problems solved with patient care—
And then I did proclaim the Country Fair!

He looked abashed and humbly said to me,
"I find that wisdom did not die with me."

Come one, come all, attend The Country Fair!
You'll find Sol pursuing knowledge there,
Learning the magic of our modern ways,
And giving P. T. A. unstinted praise.

A New Tax Lurks

(Contributed)

Like a mangy cat that has lived through dozens of premeditated drownings, the "severance tax" idea seems always to come back. It was slapped down once by the pressure of public opinion in the last session of California's legislature. Within the past month an assembly investigating committee, holding open hearings, has weathered a storm of objection that would make an old fashioned shower of bricks, tin cans and old shoes tossed at an alley cat look like a mild caress.

Now the question is, will the severance tax proposal reappear on the floor of the legislature when it meets early next year in special session? If so, it will be evidence that legislators have about as much respect for the will of the public as your alley cat has for a person's desire to get a night's rest.

Arguments against this levy on natural resources are so obvious they scarcely need to be pointed out. If it is put on gold, 35 per cent of the industry will be forced to close down, leaving the desolation of ghost towns behind. Put on timber, it would simply discourage an industry that is in the midst of a new struggle to come back. Put on oil, it would retard progress in one of the state's greatest industries, and put a new crimp in the motorist's pocket book as well.

what Irvin S. Cobb thinks about:

Tragedy in the News.

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—To me, the biggest, most tragic story in the week's papers was not a war in Africa, or a Mexican border raid, or the passing of a gallant American soldier. It was a little press dispatch from an Ohio town where a twelve-year-old boy lived.

The family was on relief, the father out of work. There was no food in the house, no pennies to buy any food with. The little chap owned a rabbit, the parents voted that the rabbit must go in the pot to put strength into the stomachs of the hungry brood. Their son was hungry, too. But his rabbit was his pet, his one possession. So he went and he hanged himself with a loop of frayed clothes-line.

Irvin S. Cobb.

People, including some who have plenty of it for themselves, are given to saying money isn't everything. Maybe not, but it'll buy quite a lot of things. Just a little money in that poor household would have bought a boy's life. And a boy, who so dearly loved a dumb and helpless thing that he died rather than see it die, might have grown up to be somebody in a world which needs all the compassion and all the loving it can get.

The Lion and the Lamb.

NO MATTER who gets involved in it or how this Ethiopian war turns out, watch motherly old Britain emerge from the mess with something valuable—territories, concessions, mandates or what have you?—tucked away in her commodious bread baskets. Any time the lion and the lamb lie down together, the lamb stays down—provided it's the British lion you're thinking of.

Let those who will, fight the battles and foot the bills. All John Bull asks is a chance to exercise the benevolent process of absorption, digestion and assimilation. There's one appetite has stood the test of the ages.

For the valor of her sons, perhaps it's fitting that, as a symbol, England should have Leo, but if you're picking something to typify her policies, my choice would be the tapeworm.

Today's Stein Song.

For years, I have been waiting to see these two massive minds brought under the same bulging roof, hoping then they'd take on a job which lesser intellects could never cope with. I wanted her to explain his theory and I wanted him to explain her poetry.

I even had the welcoming chorus fixed up:

What This Country Needs.

A LADY writes in, wishing to know what this country needs the most.

Well, dear madam, let's see:

Would it be more citizens who'll quit cussing the kind of government they get, for long enough to go to the polls, just once, and vote?

Or more patriots who'll quit waving Old Glory long enough to help smoke out some alien enemy hiding in the folds of the flag he hates?

Or fewer of those anti-Rooseveltites who still go on the apparent assumption that when the President promised to give business a breathing spell, he meant sneezing spell?

Or fewer of those pro-Rooseveltites who still think any honest criticism of the man in the White House is just the same as breaking the second commandment?

But, lady, since you're asking me, I say what this country needs most is a Mae West joke to end all Mae West jokes.

The Hunting Season.

WITH the open season impending, certain sportsmen again are declaring that, because our hunters should have more ducks and geese to shoot at, the government ought to stop the Alaskan natives from eating the eggs of wildfowl. But isn't it sort of true that those benighted Eskimos rob the nests because they're hungry for food—any food?

I've shot all over this country and Canada—hope to keep on doing so, too—but I've yet to run across the gunner, professional or amateur, who was out there shooting because his family might starve to death if he didn't bring home some ducks. Still, why worry about a lot of Yukon Indians? They don't vote, don't even buy anything on the installment plan.

For one, I'm not against reducing the bag-limit again this fall. In former years, when I got back without any game, I had to think up 25 separate alibis, whereas now I need only 10 such. That, naturally, reduces the mental strain. If I kill a duck on the wing, it's a profound shock to both parties concerned—neither one of us expecting that to happen.

Safeway Grocer

Do we Safeway grocers like our job? Do we feel we're getting ahead the way we should?

Well, the best answer I know is the typical experience of one of our boys.

For years, he'd been trying to make a go of his own little grocery business—only to find it unprofitable. Then he started managing a Safeway store.

"Today," he says, "we've a good home, a car that's almost ours and money in the bank. Besides, Safeway has insured my life, and my income in case of sickness. We think we're making progress."

Consider this and the fact that we can give you better values every day. It's a pretty fine combination for all of us.

OUR CORNER

BY AUNT BETTY

Boys! N' Girls! here is something for you.

Aunt Betty has rented a corner in the Nugget and every Friday will write you a letter, if you will write back to her You don't need a stamp, just bring your letter to the Nugget office addressed to Aunt Betty. She will get it. She'll read it! She'll write things for you; to entertain you, to help you and encourage you.

Aunt Betty loves boys n' girls and will be glad to help you in many, many ways.

Once a little girl had a tiny little pup given her. Mother said "No you can not keep it around here." So the little girl wrote to Aunt Betty and Aunt Betty wrote a piece in the paper telling how little boys n' girls loved puppies and what good and faithful companions they were to little boys n' girls and how good it was for them to have a pup. When mother read that she let the little girl keep the pup.

HERE IS AUNT BETTY'S first letter to the Nevada County Boys and Girls. The first letter that Aunt Betty receives will be printed next Friday.

Dear Girls and Boys:

Here's a corner just for us! Here we argue, smile, or fuss. Here we tell our joys and sorrows; here we plan for great tomorrows. Here we read each others notes, here sometimes we cast our votes.

For this corner neatly printed, many things are merely hinted, for Aunt Betty thinks that you should decide just what to do. Be a regular "go-getter"; be the first to write a letter. Come now John, or George, or Jane, I should like to make it plain that we wish to hear from you. Get your wishes and your views.

Should we write the things that thrill, like the maples on the hill, gypsy clad in scarlet tatters, orange, gold, in lovely spatters. Or should it be of fun and frolic and how to cure "green apple colic."

Today when teacher says to you. "There is something you must do. Write a composition, please." do not tremble at the knees; do not scowl in manner fretty—Write a letter to Aunt Betty.

Let us know your wants and wishes, favorite sports and favorite dishes. You, like little Jackie Horner, may pick a plum right from this corner. For the letters that are neat, carefully written and complete from time to time will find a place on this jolly paper's face.

Will you join our Nugget Club, Jerry, Jenny, Jack and Bub? There are no dues nor any rules, pen and paper are your tools. Just write us that letter neatly, give your name, address completely. Then the next week you shall see your name upon our Roll-Call, Free.

There's just a thought I'd leave with you. "Be loyal, honest, kind and true"—and never, never do be fretty is the loving wish of your own AUNT BETTY.

ERRATUM! TONS NOT OUNCES—PLEASE NOTE

In reporting the address of Fred M. Miller, mining and civil engineer, before the Rotary club last week, a misinterpretation of notes taken caused a very startling blunder, where "ounces" was used instead of "tons." The paragraph pertaining to the output in 1934 of the Empire Star, Murchie and Idaho-Maryland mines should have read: Empire Star output, 250,768 tons, averaging $12.95, aggregating $3,250,000 for the year; Murchie 91,770 tons, averaging $12.25 per ton, aggregating $1,124,000 for the year; Idaho-Maryland, 80,000 tons, averaging $18.35 per ton, aggregating $1,468,000 for the year.

A Glimpse of Building Activity

VOL. 1. NOVEMBER 1, 1935. No. 30.

We are always on the look out for any new ideas or materials that may make your building problems more simple or your home more attractive.

A new line of kitchen fixture hardware in modernistic designs, chromium plated has just been stocked. You will like this hardware and all its values in your kitchen.

Contractor Geo. Bobst is getting well along with the second of the duplex cottages that he is building on the Janiss property out on the Red Dog road near the Murchie mine. Douglas Fir plywood wallboard is being used in finishing these houses.

Have you a problem in brightening up kitchen boilers, bath tubs or other metal surfaces around the home—Pabco Liquid Silver will solve the problem. New, bright, lasting, inexpensive.

The new home of Mr. McConnell on Church street in Grass Valley is roofed with Perfect Red Cedar shingles, dipped in dark green Golden State shingle stain. This will give a beautiful lasting, trouble-free roof.

LET'S LAUGH

They're still having trouble with the sales tax. A man struggled through his dinner at a restaurant, without seeming to enjoy the food.

"What's the bill?" he asked.

"So that what it was!" the man exclaimed. "I thought there was gravel in the food."

CATTLE CAMP BURNED

Motorists going out over the Tahoe-Ukiah highway Monday evening after dusk in the blustery windstorm were surprised to encounter a dense layer of smoke about two feet through near the junction of the Frank Peri road and the highway, hovering close to the roadway. It was found Peckham's cattle camp, consisting of a house, barn and corral had burned to the ground. The sudden shower of rain kept the fire from spreading to the woods but the camp was a burning mass of embers.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR FIRST GRADERS

The first grade pupils of the Washington Grammar School won the P. T. A. membership contest in the big drive which closed a few days ago and were given a Hallowe'en party in the sewing room of the school building yesterday afternoon. The children had a joyous time in playing many games under the supervision of their teachers, Miss Gertrude Goyne and Miss Lois Shaw. A grab bag proved a delight. Decorations and dainty refreshments were in keeping with Hallowe'en.

As first grade teachers, Miss Goyne has 36 pupils and Miss Shaw 32, making a total of 68. Miss Shaw's class made a 65 per cent membership, while Miss Goyne's class made 58 per cent. Miss Ruth Tamblyn and Mrs. Mary Warnecke's classes were close runners-up in the contest. Mrs. W. P. Lee and Mrs. Al Williams are the class mothers.

Mrs. George Schrader, chairman and Mrs. George Keller planned the party for the children.

The many friends of Mrs. Brian Krough of this city, will b sorry to learn that she is confined to her home with a severe atack of arthritis.

DIVA TO SING IN SACTO. NOV. 17

An important change in date for the concert of Gladys Swarthout, young mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who is to appear in Sacramento as the second attraction of the Sacramento Music Series, was announced this week.

Miss Swarthout will sing in Memorial auditorium at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, November 17, instead of November 19 as previously scheduled.

Conflict in concert dates and her work in Hollywood, where she is making the picture Rose of the Rancho, necessitated the change, series representatives said.

Miss Swarthout, who is recognized as a national star in the four fields of opera, concert, radio and sound films, will sing a concert of popular and operatic numbers, to be climaxed by three arias from Carmen, which she soon will make in a motion picture.

The talented young star is a favorite with the critics. Louella O. Parsons, Hollywood writer, says of her:

"Nothin's too good for Gladys Swarthout. She not only has a voice to charm the birds off the trees but she has beauty as well."

DAUGHTER WRITES OF SOUTHERN WIND STORM

Mr. John A. Carter of Nevada City received a letter from his daughter, Miss Julia Carter of Santa Ana, Sunday, in which she stated a terrific wind storm sprang up and blew 26 hours doing damage to the extent of between seven and eight million dollars. It stopped as quickly as it had come leaving a perfect calm. Miss Carter went to the post office and wrote the letter to her father on scraps of paper found in the office. While the storm lasted people were forced to camp in their cars, sleep in them, camp out and sleep in the streets, keeping away from all buildings.

Policemen, firemen and electricians were kept on duty over 24 hours rendering service as far as possible. Besides property damage, avacado, orange and lemond groves suffered, trees being blown out by the roots. At Huntington Beach 42 oil well derricks blew over.

W. E. Moulton of French Corral and relative, Mr. Anderson of Syracuse, N. Y., were Nevada City visitors Wednesday. Mr. Anderson visited in this section 35 years ago and noted many changes in the county

BEER AND WINE SHOOT WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

CAMPTONVILLE, Oct. 31.—On Sunday, November 3, from 10 a. m. until dark the Gold Pan Lodge of Camptonville will give another of its original entertainments, a beer and wine shoot, the prizes being jugs of wine and cases of beer.

The beer shoot given by the Gold Pan last August was such a huge success that many people have since been asking Bill Davis, the proprietor, to run a similar affair and to give the good marksmen another opportunity to go home with three or four cases of beer under each arm.

The short range will be a forty yard target. The long range will be 220 yards, at a six inch plate. Pools will be formed by the participants paying 25 cents, 50 cents or one dollar each, according to number of men and the prize.

Shotguns are barred. For those who like to dance, the radio will be broadcasting in the dance hall all day.

OCTOBER HOME BUILDING SHOWS BIG INCREASE

October will prove a "million dollar month" in Northern California for new homes financed under the single mortgage plan of the National Housing Act, it was estimated today by the district office of the Federal Housing Administration.

The announcement was made when residential construction during the week leaped to $225,000. Commitments were issued in the last week of the month covering construction of 34 new dwellings, on which the Housing Administration insured mortgages amounting to $185,950, an average loan of $4,675 on each home, according to Clifford C. Anglim, director of the Northern California district.

"There are many attractive features of the single mortgage system which appeal to the potential home owner", Anglim said. "Foremost are elimination of costly refinancing, a mortgage which does not mature until the final installment is paid, assurance of thorough government inspection during the course of construction, and the fact that interest is fixed at five per cent maximum and all other charges are regulated by the government The convenient monthly payments, like rent, absorb all costs, including taxes and insurance and retire the mortgage at the borrower's convenience in 10 to 20 years.",

Attesting an active public response, to this form of financing, Anglim stated that mortgages selected by the Federal Housing Administration for appraisal number 51,541 to date and involve $200,190,239 while 499,169 modernization credit loans have been insured, amounting to an additional $185,838,724.

CAMPTONVILLE, Oct. 31.—A birthday party for Mr. Luke Ramm was given by his friends at the Gold Pan Lodge. Everyone enjoyed an evening of merriment, the climax of the party being a very attractive birthday cake made by Mrs. Len Bishop. The cake was decorated with sixteen candles, for which Mr. Ramm was grateful since he refused to divulge his age. The birthday gifts were presented to the guest of honor with an appropriate speech by Bill Davis, although upon unwrapping the packages, Mr. Ramm found the gifts aptly facetious.

REDUCED ELECTRIC RATES

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Pacific Gas and Electric Company is pleased to announce another reduction in electric rates amounting to approximately $4,000,000 per year.

Beginning with January bills lower rates will become effective for household electric service, for commercial lighting, and for power service for large commercial and industrial establishments.

Of the $4,000,000 represented by the reduction, $2,000,000 per year will go to domestic customers, $1,000,000 to commercial lighting customers, and $1,000,000 to power customers.

The top lighting rate in incorporated cities and towns is lowered from 4.5 cents to 4 cents per kilowatt hour, and the second block from 3.5 cents to 2.5 cents per kilowatt hour, both blocks being slightly lengthened. Domestic customers who use 60 kilowatt hours per month, which is the average domestic consumption, will benefit by a 10.7 per cent reduction. In rural districts the rates for both first and second blocks are reduced one-half cent per kilowatt hour, these blocks also being somewhat extended.

A year ago, when we offered a special inducement rate to encourage increased use of electricity, we said, "It is our hope and expectation that this offer will so stimulate the use of electricity as to justify a reduction in the regular schedules." This hope has been realized. There has been a gratifying increased use which has helped to make possible the present reduction.

Increased consumption, however, does not tell the whole story. During recent months we have substantially reduced bond interest charges. We have consolidated properties and lowered operating costs. We have put economies into effect in every department. These savings we are now passing along to our customers in lower rates.

We are counting, too, on better business conditions and these reduced rates to stimulate greater use of electricity.

We are making this reduction despite continued increases in taxes, well illustrated by the fact that in 1934 the company paid $1,146,000 more in taxes, federal, state, and local, than in the preceding year.

The trend of our rates is and always has been downward. Going back only eight years, the company in 1928 reduced its charges $2,418,900 per year. This was followed in 1930 by another reduction of $3,020,000 per year. This year customers will save $1,600,000 through the temporary inducement rate. The present reduction will save an additional $3,924,000 per year. These successive rate reductions will represent accumulated savings to our electric customers of $54,621,000 by the end of 1936.

These new rates will enable our customers to enjoy greater electric comforts and conveniences. We are especially gratified to be able to reduce the cost of electric service at this time when general costs of living are steadily rising.
